

Out Of Town Visitors

S. C. Billings, of Milwaukee, Wis., recently arrived in El Paso, and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. E. Wilson, 209 North Florence street.

Mrs. D. Wren, of Galveston, Texas, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Litchell, 1112 Nevada street.

Henry Blackwell, special deputy collector of customs of the port of Port Townsend, Wash., and Rose E. Chesnut, deputy collector of customs at the port of Seattle, who have been attending the annual conference of customs appraisers and examiners at New York, spent Friday in El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Evans left Saturday for Carrizozo, N. M., after spending a few days with their son, Rev. G. N. Evans, of Highland Park.

Mrs. Frank H. Todd has as her guest for the winter her niece, Miss Marjorie H. Ransom, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Miss Anita Jones, of Baltimore, Md., will arrive Thursday to be the guest for the winter of her brother and sister, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Jones.

Mrs. W. F. Dean is visiting her mother, Mrs. Josephus, at her home, 1205 Montana street, and will spend about two months here.

Miss Lola A. Kayser, of Greenville, South Carolina, is the guest of Mrs. C. C. Burnside, at the Y. W. C. A. boarding home. Miss Kayser is a graduate of Converse college, and of Vassar, and has been teaching in the Greenville Female college, South Carolina. She will teach in the church grade in the Beall school, East El Paso.

Mrs. Anna Bernard, of Steamboat Springs, Colo., is spending a few days in El Paso, on her way to visit her brother, T. M. McCarthy, in Hackita, N. M. She is staying at the Y. W. C. A. boarding home.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

The young women of the Y. W. C. A. boarding home, had an informal party at the home Thanksgiving night. The parlors were decorated with potted plants and ferns. Each young woman was blindfolded as he entered and made to pick a ribbon from a grab bag. The young woman who was a box of corresponding color, was his partner for the evening.

Guessing games afforded much amusement, and the ingenuity of those present. Miss Agnes Quinn played a number of piano selections, and Miss Lillian Martin gave two clever recitations.

The large English dining room downstairs was decorated with ropes of green and paper flowers, which were strung about the ceiling and wound around the columns.

Mrs. "Miss" Mary's buff, "spin the platter," "forfeits" and "going to Jerusalem" and other games were played, Garland Lyman furnishing the music with his mandolin.

Marshmallows were toasted in front of the large open grate fireplace.

Mrs. S. C. Demsey, the house secretary, presided over the fruit punch table in one corner of the room, which was served by Miss Florence Hanson and Miss R. M. Augur.

Later the guests returned to the parlors and gathered around the piano, sang popular songs.

The young women in charge of the affair were: Miss Florence Hanson, the general secretary of the association; Miss Lillian Martin, Mrs. C. C. Burnside, who had charge of the games; Miss Fannie Kerrick, Miss Minnie Trumbull, Miss Pearl Jordan, Miss Agnes Quinn, and Miss Mary Holt, who arranged the tables.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Durkee, Miss Jennie Locke, Mrs. Anna Bernier, Mrs. Margaret Appleton, Messrs. Garland Lyman, Bryan Brown, Jack Neville, B. L. Culbertson, Charles S. Lewis, J. C. Siskman, Frederick W. Burns, W. N. Hall, B. A. Ziegler, L. E. Green, M. H. Caldwell, Jack, John Smith, Miss Josephine Foss, Miss Flora Hagood, Miss Pearl Jordan, Miss Agnes Quinn, Miss Althea Dempsey, Mrs. Minnie Patton, Mrs. C. C. Burnside, Miss Eugenia Vance, Mrs. J. J. Roseborough, Miss P. M. Jones, Mrs. E. Barrett, Miss Mary Holt, Mrs. McMillan, William, Mrs. W. F. Dean, R. M. Augur and Miss Florence Hanson.

Handsome as a Bulldog!

MOREOVER—
—The up-to-date Young Man insists upon Wearing Shoes that way, this Season.

Wants room to cross his toes when he sees the Pretty Girl coming, maybe!

So, here you are, Meboy! We didn't invent the Style. It is "Rhinoceanian," if you want to say so.

But nevertheless—
—It is the Proper Caper for Fall, 1911.

This, —and a dozen other new Styles shown now in Regal Shoe Store and Agency windows, to tickle the Young Man's Fancy and to Get his Money.

Four Dollars,—that's all! Milder Styles for more conservative People.

Higher prices, too, for Super-Standard Regals.

School Notes

The Thanksgiving offering from the Mesa school, of which Miss Ruth Evans is principal, was very generous. Clothing, groceries and some money were given.

Following are two programs that were given by the high school and low third and low fourth grades:

High Second and Low Fourth Grades.
"Turkey Day," Glen Lee.
"Over the River," song by school.
"A Day of Cheer," Harry McGinnis.
"Thanksgiving Joy," Nellie Campbell, Blanche Long, Molette Sawyer.

Dialogue, "Getting Ready for Thanksgiving," Minnie Lee Darr, Pauline Eck, Mary Powers, Florida Brewer, Bessie Thompson.

"Thanksgiving Pie," song by school.
"The Miller," Harold Haseman, Francis Wernet, Ira Pollard, Fleming Page.

"Thanksgiving Feast," Allen Hallie.
"A Trying Question," Philip Pollock.
"What I'm Thankful for," Cordelia Kerr, Dan White, Billie Moss, Alfred Uhlig, Richard Pearson, Mary Sims, Hal Barber, Ethel Colboth, Billie Peyton Cummins, Irene Monson.

"Nellie's Visit," Nellie Davis.
"Thanksgiving Feasts," Elizabeth Spencer.

"A Big Fat Turkey," Anna O'Neill.
"Low Fourth Grade."
"October," song by school.
"Nightmare," reading, Ruby Fuller.
"What Willie Got," Richard Thornton.

"The Elm Trees," song by grade.
"The Dinner Chat Flew Away," Pearl

Large Packing and Shipping Room

Warehouse First & Ocean Streets

C. W. GEIGER

GET GEIGER TO DO IT BOTH PHONES

Gilliland

"Thanksgiving Day," May B. Long.
"Margie's Thanksgiving," Bessie Gifford.

"We Thank Thee," song by grade.
"The Turkey's Day," Adeline Bowden.
"The Turkey's Complaint," Floyd Gilliland.

"Thanksgiving," song by grade.
The Parent Teachers' association of the Highland Park school met Wednesday afternoon at the school.

The following Thanksgiving program had been arranged by the pupils and took place before the business meeting of the association:

"The Reason Why," Roy Riley.
Song, "The Goldenrod Candles," fourth grade.
Play, "The Thanksgiving Story," third grade.

"Why I'm Thankful," Ruth Rhodes.
"The Little Pilgrim Maiden," girls of first grade.

"The Turkey Soliloquy," second and third grades.
"A Real Thanksgiving Play," Amelia Fletcher, fourth grade.

"Song, Popcorn Sprites," first grade.
Considering the small number of pupils, 150 being enrolled, in this locality the entertainment was one which deserves special mention.

The Thanksgiving offering was one of the largest among the schools. The room in which the entertainment took place was crowded.

The following women were elected officers for Highland Park Parent Teachers' association: Mrs. A. S. Howard, president; Mrs. W. F. Franks, vice president; Mrs. Eels, secretary and treasurer. Ten new members were received.

Owing to illness, Mrs. Geo. Rutledge was unable to be present to give her address of the Texas Congress of Mothers, which met at Waco. The next meeting will be December 13.

The competition and literature classes of the seventh and eighth grades of Mesa school recited to Miss Virginia Thomas on Friday as their regular teacher, Miss Florence Goddard, is in New Mexico, where she went to attend the wedding of Miss Ina Nelson and Geo. W. Goddard will return Sunday morning.

The following was erroneously omitted from the Thanksgiving program given by Lamar school on Wednesday: Reading of the Thanksgiving proclamation—George Little.

Song, "November Days," School.
The story of the first Thanksgiving—Will Roberts.

Song, (1) Grandmother's Farmhouse—Kindergarten; (2) The Family—Hugh Worthington, Margaret Sawyer, Isabelle Fomeroy, Kate Leavell.

Thanksgiving at Grandpa's—Mildred Dow.

One of the most exciting and interesting girls' basketball games of the season was played Friday afternoon by the Lamar school vs. high school, on the Lamar court.

The teams were evenly matched and skillful playing was seen throughout the game, which resulted in a victory for the Lamar girls by a score of 14 to 12.

The Lamar team is composed of Kathleen Allen, captain; Nona Vlescas, Nancy Edwards, Mrs. Harrie, Dorothy McCullough, Anna Windburne.

The high school team is composed of Caroline Black, Madeline Kerr, Edna Scott, Velma Chenoweth, Bessie Rutledge, Blanche Nolan, Carmen Blasing, Charles Carter.

Mexican Boxes 50c a pound; regular 40c value. Special for Friday and Saturday. Potter's Confectionery, Mills building.
